

Cemoc Limited - Privacy and Data Protection Policy

Cemoc will comply with Data Protection Law (as applicable in the Law of England & Wales). In particular, we will:

- (1) not use, retain, or share Personal Data received from you for a purpose and duration for which we have not obtained consent, unless another lawful basis applies;
- (2) establish transparent procedures for managing and responding to any communication from you or any other Interested Party seeking to exercise rights under Data Protection Laws;
- (3) provide reasonable assistance to you in responding to any requests, investigation, consultation, or claims from a customer, regulator, or supervisory authority concerning Data Protection Law;
- (4) take appropriate security measures as required by Data Protection Law, and in accordance with good industry practice relating to data security and to the level of risk;
- (5) not gather Personal Data through internet cookies without your explicit consent; and,
- (6) refrain from transmitting unsolicited commercial communications in any manner that would violate applicable laws.
